RUSSIAN, GERMAN, AND AUSTRIAN ANCESTORS IN POLAND

WHY DO MANY AUSTRIAN, Russian, and German emigrants to America identify home towns that are in Poland? The answer is that Poland has been both an autonomous state and a collection of provinces under German, Austrian, and Russian rule. Norman Davies, author of God's Playground: A History of Poland (2 vols., New York: Columbia University Press, 1982) suggests that today's Republic of Poland is not the successor to previous versions of a Polish state. Each incarnation of Poland was unique in its boundaries and in the makeup of its society.

The nation of Poland traces its origins to the Slavic tribes living between the Oder and Vistula rivers on the northern European plain that stretches from the Atlantic in the west to the Ural Mountains in the east. In 1563, through the union of the kingdoms of Poland and Lithuania, the authority of the Polish crown extended to an area that included all of modern Poland, Lithuania, White Russia, and Ukraine. And yet, by 1795, Poland had ceased to exist as a nation.

DIVIDE AND CONQUER

In the last half of the eighteenth century, Polish nobles, seeking to fortify their power, vetoed any attempt by a king to establish a strong central authority. Poland's neighbors, seeing her weakness and fearing that one or the other of them might gain an advantage by taking over Poland, decided to divide it among them. The partitions of 1772, 1793, and 1795 left northern and western Poland to the Prussians (West Prussia, Posen, and Mazovia), southern Poland to the Austrians (Galicia and Lodomeria), and eastern Poland to Russia (including Lithuania, White Russia, and Eastern Ukraine). Twelve years later, in 1807, Napoleon nullified the partitions by establishing the Grand Duchy of Poland. After Napoleon's defeat, the Treaty of Vienna (1815) restored Posen to Prussia and Galicia to Austria. Most of the Russian partition was returned to Russia. At the Congress of Vienna the central region of Poland, with Warsaw, was created as a kingdom, popularly known as the Congress Kingdom of Poland. The Emperor of Russia was made the king of this new kingdom. Continual uprisings by the Polish against the Russians led to complete incorporation of Congress Poland into the Russian Empire by 1874.

The city of Cracow and its environs, in northeastern Galicia, was not returned to Austria by the Treaty of Vienna. Instead, the treaty gave the area autonomy as the Republic of Cracow. It remained the only independent part of Poland until 1846. A peasant uprising against landowners in 1846 invited Austrian intervention, and the Republic of Cracow was annexed to Austrian Galicia that year.

UNITED AT LAST

Until the end of the First World War, Poland remained an idea rather than a nation. Then, from 1918 to 1921, wars and plebiscites produced a new Polish republic in control of virtually all of the regions that were lost to Russia and Austria in the partitions. This republic also included the former German-ruled areas of Posen, northern Silesia, and a corridor to the Baltic Sea that cut a swath through what had been the western borderland of West Prussia.

The Republic of Poland's life was a short one. On 27 December 1939, Poland capitulated to German invaders; the Germans divided their spoils with their Soviet allies, who had invaded Poland from the east. By 1945, the tables had turned, and the Germans surrendered Poland to the Soviets, who were now in league with the United States, Britain, and France. The stage was set for the birth of a new Poland. Ukraine, White Russia, all of Lithuania, and the northern half of East Prussia were excluded from the new Peoples' Republic of Poland.

Its northern border extended to the Baltic and its southern border to the Carpathian Mountains. The western border followed the Neisse River north to its confluence with the Oder River, continuing north along the Oder and then north-northeast to Swinemunde (Swinoujście) on the Baltic coast. Poland's southeastern border intersected the boundary with Slovakia where the San River originates in the Carpathian Mountains. The border then followed a line north to the Bug River and paralleled the river on its northward course. Then, at Brest, the borderline ran in a northern direction another 160 miles before turning west to end in the Baltic Sea near the Polish city of Braniewo. These boundaries have endured to the present day, although the Peoples' Republic of Poland has not. As the Soviet Empire collapsed, the Soviet-supported government in Warsaw also dissolved. The Republic of Poland was born in 1989. Today

Poland is led by a popularly-elected government and is eager to assume its place in the community of independent nations.

RECORDS RECOVERED

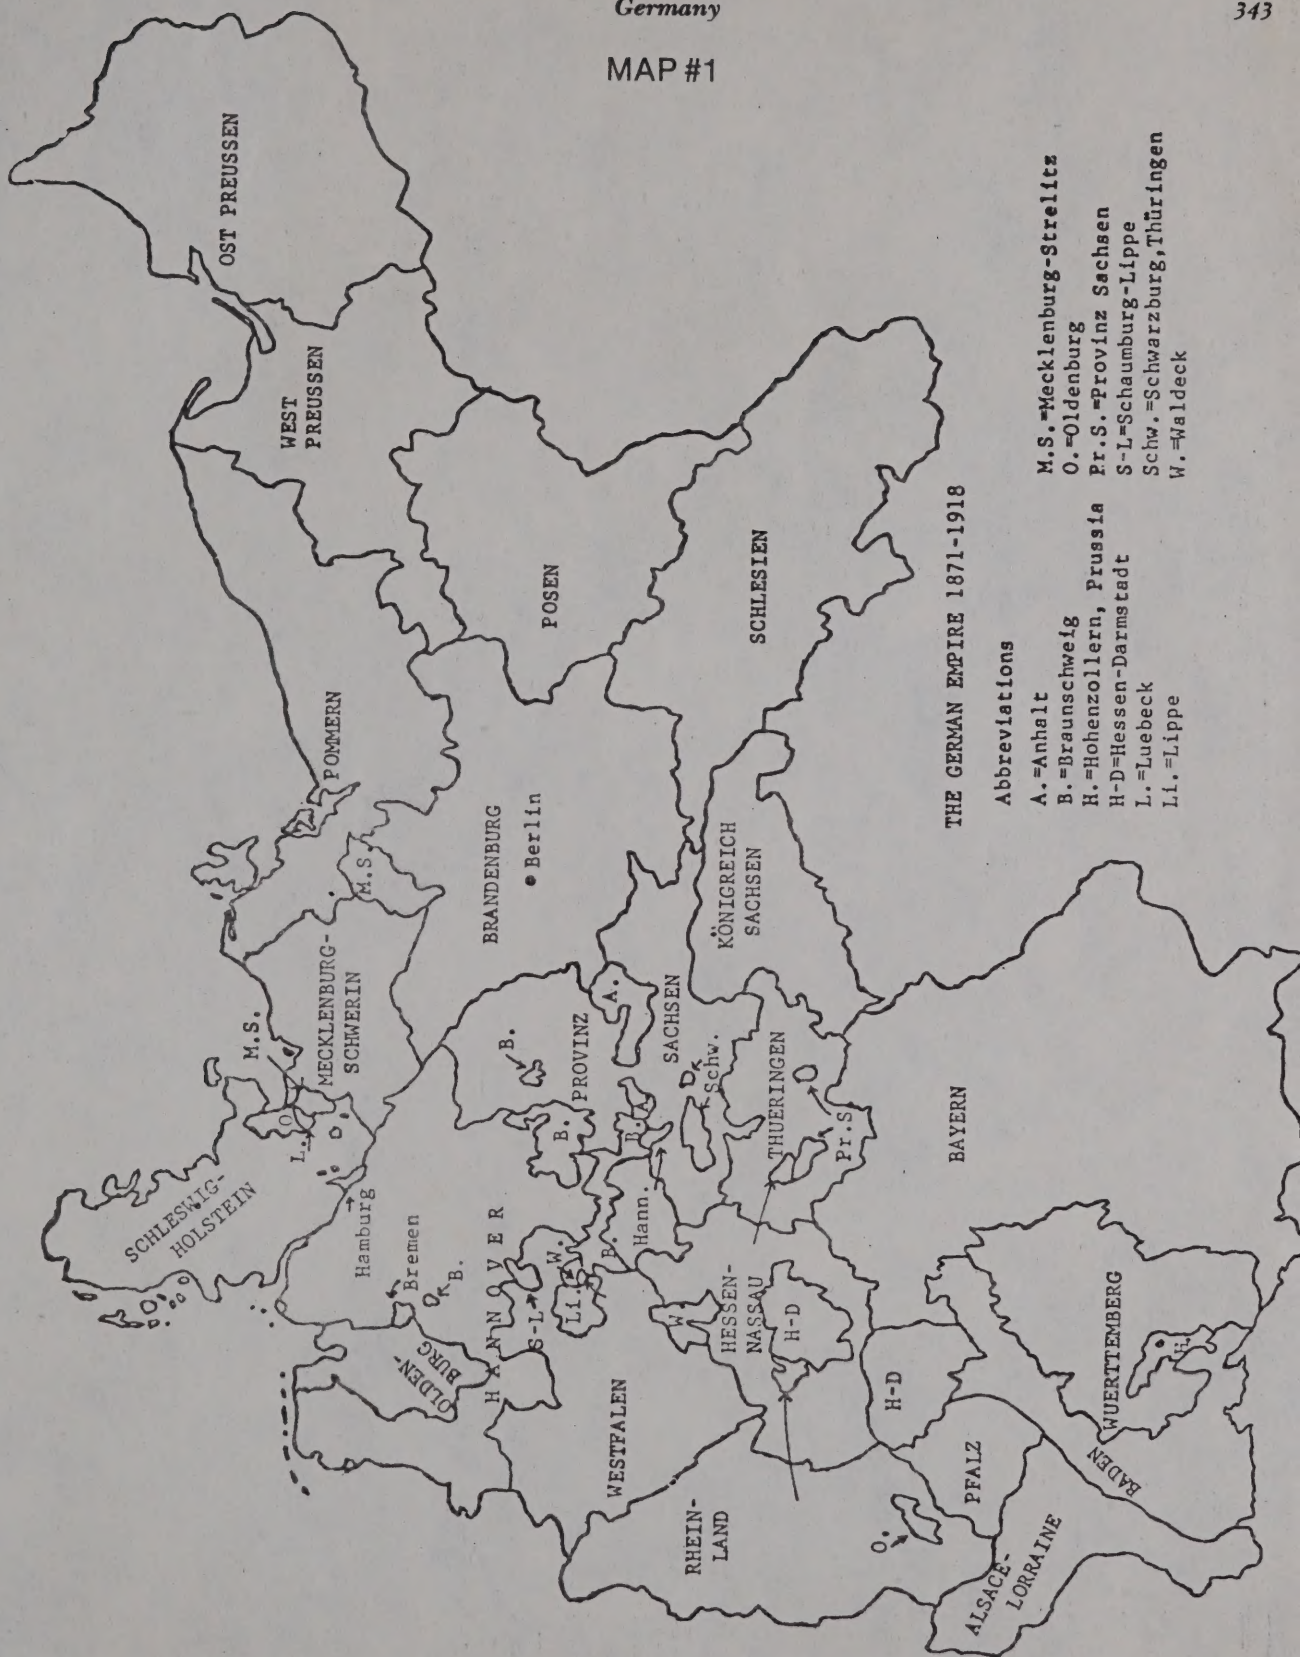

During the first years after the Second World War, non-Polish minorities fled Poland, leaving it a nation whose citizens were almost all Polish—unlike any of the Polands of the past. As the inhabitants of post-war Poland cleared away the rubble of their destroyed cities, they discovered that many of the records created by past rulers of Poland had survived the war. A national system of state archives was established to preserve and organize these records. Archives were established in capital cities and in other cities in each województwo (province). These state archives were (and still are) administered by the National Directorate of State Archives in Warsaw. Each provincial archives' office gathered and preserved the his-

The Prussian province of Pomerania was enlarged in 1938 by the counties of Schlochau, Flatow, Deutsch-Krone and Netze – (1918–1928) as part of the province Grenzmark Posen-West Prussia, as well as the counties of Arnswalde and Friedeberg (Neumark). Eastern Pomerania, mainly that part of Pomerania lying east of the Oder River and historically called “Hinterpommern”, was placed under Polish rule in 1945. The western part, “Vorpommern”, became part of Mecklenburg within the German Democratic Republic (DDR), now the districts of Rostock and Neubrandenburg.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Dear Mrs. Wooley:

This is in response to your letter of 24 August, to Walter Hilbig, who has asked me to take over much of the correspondence directed to him. You want to expand research on the Barfelz, Drefke (Treff), Kunde and Knope lines.

Let's take them one at a time. First the ones with place names indicated. For Augusta Kunde's parents you indicated Bublitz as the place of residence. This is a small town and a "Kreis" seat (a Kreis is the equivalent of the American "county"). It had its own Lutheran church (= source of parish records) and also a civil registrar's office (= source of civil records). Records from Pommern are sparse at the Family History Library, here in Salt Lake City, but with the new political situation in Poland (to which this part of Pommern now belongs) chances for research by correspondence, plus additional microfilming of records, are looking better all the time.

You indicate the birth of Augusta's child Minnie as having occurred at Leikow. There are two villages by that name. All signs point to your family coming from Leikow in the Kreis of Schlawe, Regierungsbezirk (governing district) of Köslin (your spelling was Kosalin), by the way, not, as you state, the province (which was Pommern, the German spelling for Pomerania).

Leikow lacked its own church and the (exclusively) Lutheran population went to church at Nemitz, which, curiously, was located outside the Kreis boundaries, in the Kreis of Kammin.

Since Augusta's mother Charlotte Knope Kunde was born at Klein Soltikow, let's indicate here that that place, (a "Rittergut" or noble estate) too, lacked a church and also went to Nemitz for services. Civil records for both Leikow and Klein Soltikow were located at Soltikow. I find it interesting that in your letter you spelled the town name without the "w", (thus = Soltiko), since that spelling signifies the correct pronunciation. The "w" is silent, indicating to me a handing down and later recording of the name from an oral tradition.

The Family History Library catalog lists two filmings of the Nemitz parish records, both, alas, too early to help you in your research. I am, however, enclosing computer printouts to aid your research once you have been able to get that far back. Order the films via the friendly folks at a Family History Center in Ft. Myers (3105 Broadway, phone 936-9831). Meanwhile keep checking on research opportunities by correspondence to help link you up to that time period.

I am enclosing computer printouts from the International Genealogical Index (IGI) of Kunde and Knop(e) names in Pommern. They should serve only as an indication of the presence of those families in Pommern. At Pielburg, Pommern, we see that both families' names occur in the same place.

With Carl Barfelz you just indicated Pomeran. This should read Pommern, again, the German spelling for the province of Pomerania. With Frederika Drefke (Treff) there was no place name given, but we will assume that the couple met in Pommern. I have scanned the IGI and found no Barfelz in Pommern, but found four entries in Berlin (not far from Pommern). The spelling of the name is Barfels, but all four entries are listed under the Barfelz main heading.

I am enclosing computer printouts with source information, in case you want to follow up with your own research. I have also copied 10 Dreffke entries from Pommern and I am enclosing computer printouts with source information, to indicate where, in Pommern, Dreffkes could be found. The 10 entries come from five different locations. For lack of more information you would have to look at each of them to see if they tie into your family or if the locations are close to the other families which have place names indicated.

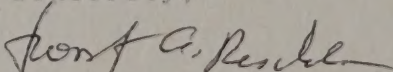

A quick run-through of the place names you listed for further reference. The following are in Pommern (now Poland): Pollnow, Butow (could also be Bütow, since there are two places, one with each spelling), Köslin (which you spell Coslin). The next four places are in Ostpreussen (East Prussia, now Soviet Union): Landsberg, Königsberg (don't leave dots off over the "o"), Jerusalem (not Jerusalemer = a person from Jerusalem), and Braunsberg. Elbing is in Westpreussen (West Prussia, now Poland). Pommern is the province name. Posen, the erstwhile kingdom, later was the province name. The preponderance of names of East Prussian place names taken from the Ramien family's photos points to a possible link.

Finally, two additional bits of information: 1. A book title which includes a reference to Kunde and may (or may not) be pertinent to your research. Attached computer printout gives title. Check larger genealogical library or Salt Lake Family History Center for copy. 2. Genealogist Otto Firschau, in Germany, has published information on his family, with a collateral line of Kunde included. You may want to write to him at:

Nachtigallenweg 6
4902 Bad Salzufen
(former) West Germany

I hope this will help you in your research. Best wishes!

Sincerely,

Horst A. Reschke

Fran,

The neighbor of mine that translated this indicated it is written in Old German which ceased to be taught in 1939.
Her elder sister had three years of schooling in this form of the language, and it was their father who insisted his children retain the language skill so he drilled them at home.
That's how she knew the language. She was unfamiliar with the town itself, but wondered if it was a small village near the border with Lithuania. She was going to check out her maps and Atlases.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: (Review article)

German Military Records
As Genealogical Sources
by Horst A. Reschke
Published by the author

Great-grandfather Heinrich served in the German army during the Franco-Prussian War. But in what outfit? Father's uncle Franz Leopold was a guard at the King of Bavaria's palace. How do we find the name of his unit? A distant member of the family was forced to go to Russia as a conscript in Napoleon's Grand Army. How can we check out the story?

These and other questions often crop up in correspondence from eager genealogists wanting to use the military angle to complete their pedigree. While that is an excellent idea, what frequently stymies intrepid adventurers exploring their ancestors' soldiering life is lack of information on how to get plugged into military information that far in the past.

German Military Records as Genealogical Sources, by Horst A. Reschke, is an introduction into the puzzling world of German military records. Intended as an orientation, it will guide the reader in making the correct approach when looking for elusive documents.

The fact that, until 1871, there was no "German Army" per se has many people baffled. "If not a German army then what army should I be looking for?" they ask. Is there a central military archive one can write to? What was the difference between the imperial army and the Prussian army? What is the extent of the German military records and how did they survive the ravages of World War II, or did they?

The slender pamphlet provides answers to many such questions which have perplexed beginning genealogists, and even a few professionals, in the past. Horst A. Reschke, a native German, whose father and grandfather served in the post-1871 German army, is himself a seasoned genealogist, specializing in German and Jewish research. - $3.50 postpaid. Barfelz

The steam ship Polynesian left Hamburg, Germany on May 7, 1893, and arrived at Baltimore, Maryland, USA on May 26, 1893.

Carl and Augusta Barfelz

Among the passengers were Carl Barfelz age 29 (husband), Augusta Barfelz age 28 (wife-6 months pregnant), Anna Barfelz age 7 (daughter), Meta Barfelz age 1 (daughter-no further record), Ernest Kunde age 30 (brother of Augusta), Matilda Kunde age 28 (his wife), Minna Kunde age 7 (niece), Carl Kunde age 7 (son), Paul Kunde age 4 (son), Frederick Kunde age 1 (son-died at sea May 14), Charlotte Kunde age ~~55~~ (mother of Augusta & Ernest).

Other information on the passenger list indicated Carl was a laborer, could read and write English, lived in Kozsalin and prepaid the passage of $2.00. The information claimed that he had never been in the U.S. before, was joining a relative in Bridgman by the name of Haase, was not under contract to labor and was in good health, not crippled.

These brave people had packed all they could carry and left their homes in Pommern, Germany to begin a new life in a strange land. Their passage was paid by Mr. Gast from Bridgman. Because of this arrangement, the new arrivals worked for Mr. Gast for two years until their debt was paid, and then began saving toward the purchase of their own farms. The Barfelz family first lived in Baroda, then later purchased a 10 acre farm on California Road, about two miles south of Bridgman. In 1900, Carl became an American citizen. The Kundes settled on a farm on Livingston Road.

The Barfelz family attended the Immanuel Lutheran Church at Bridgman, and the children attended the church school when weather permitted and shoes were available. The confirmation register of the church lists the names of Anna who was born in 1889, Rose who was born in Baroda in 1893, and Grace who was born in 1894. Two sons, Edward and Max, were born later.

The passing of Mrs. (Gottlieb) Charlotte (Knopé) Kunde is listed as the sixth death in the church records and occurred on March 20, 1898. Her age was given as 72 years, 1 month, 18 days. She is buried at the Lake Township cemetery just north of the church and across the railroad tracks. Her plot does not have a marker.

The home of the Barfelz family never had electricity or indoor plumbing, nor did they ever own an automobile. They raised crops and animals on their farm that supported the family: chickens, cows, pigs and the grain to feed them plus a large garden. They harvested several varieties of berries and took them to Bridgman to be shipped to Chicago and sold from there. Augusta took extra eggs to town and traded for staples they could not raise, such as coffee, salt, flour and sugar. In this day and age 2007, they would have been considered "dirt-poor." They were a poor but proud self-sufficient family.

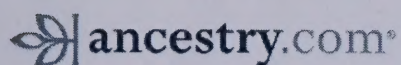

Augusta died in 1938, and Carl remained on the farm until his death in 1944. Both are buried in the Lake Township cemetery and have markers. Their son Max and his family occupied the homestead for a few years and then located elsewhere. Son Edward became the owner and his son Marvin, when he returned from serving overseas in ~~WWI~~, modernized the house. His widow, Mildred (Ott) Barfelz resided there until her death.

The Barfelz children married as follows: Anna (1889-1980) married Paul Pagel; Rose (1893-1985) married 1. Albin A. Froberg, 2. Herman Collins; Grace (1894-1933) married Gustav Dombrow; Edward (1897-1963) married Lucy Rutz; Max (1909-1967) married Pearl Finley.

Verbal Information from Rose Collins

Nov. 1985

Carl and Augusta Barfely came to the United States in May 1893 from Pomeran, Germany. He was about 28-30 years at this time. Mr. Herman Gast paid for Grandma, Grandpa, her mother and 2 sisters to come to the United States. This debt was later repaid by picking strawberries. Grandpa Barfely later sent for his 2 sisters to come to this country, but he paid for their passage himself.

Aunt Rose was born in the United States in ^{Aug} 1893, however her sisters Minnie & Emma were born in Germany. Grandma Barfely was sick the whole trip, but her 2 sisters were up on deck & enjoyed the ~~whole~~ trip. One cousin, a Kunder, who was 4 years old died during the passage and was buried at sea. The parents were grieving & didn't watch the burial, but Grandpa saw it, and was shocked at the sight of the sharks attacking the body. This reaction from a man who prided himself on his nerves of steel and tolerance to pain. Grandpa didn't believe in going to doctors or dentist. He pulled his own teeth with pliers. Once he cut his gums with a knife to remove a tooth & Pearl came in & saw him with blood running down his face & the knife in his hand & she ran into the yard screaming. He ran after her to quiet her down but he still had the knife in his hand & this just frightened her more. Aunt Rose also recalled that he once sharpened Grandma's good silverware because it didn't "cut good." Mary and Ed Jr. still have this silverware.

Carl and Aguste lived for a time near Stevensville, then settled in Bridgman. In time they bought 10 acres of land, a house, barn & outbuildings for $1200.¹⁰⁰

Grace was named Margrete but called Grace. She married Gus Dombrow and died of T.B. in 1922. Aguste and Carl had 2 sets of twins who were born in Germany, and died in infancy. Grandpa Barfels was a Iva Shine is Margarete Borjely Dombrow's daughter (only child). Iva's mother died when she was 2. And her father's mother was afraid Aunt Rose was going to keep her & raise her as a Borjely instead of a Dombrow. 2 years later her father also died. Margarete's mother & father legally adopted Iva. Then Grandma died & her grandfather couldn't take care of her alone so he moved in with friends & they raised her. She was told she had no relatives. She later married a man from Coloma. Aunt Rose met her & told her she was her Aunt.

MADBLINE

Dear Madeline

We received your letter and were sorry to hear you've been ill. I'm sending you the little information I have on ^(our) your family. I didn't have enough to do anything with especially after we were told Pomerant is probably in East Germany. Perhaps someone else can add to this. I would be glad to get any additional information or verbal history from anyone who is interested.

Gale is working as a mechanic for Blue Diamond Almonds. I am taking care of a lady in her home, just part time. I could work more hours but it just goes for taxes. Drop a line & let me know if you get this. Take care of yourselves.

Love,
Gwen & Gale

Grandpa worked in a mill in Germany before he joined the German Army. He left the German Army illegally to come to the United States.

Other references, I have not been able to follow up, are The Ramines & The Patzloff families. Supposedly Grandpa Barfely's sisters married into these families. Here is all the information I have on these families: Robert Ramine, South Bend, Indiana; Children, Erik, Kurt & Gertha.

Patzloff, Benton Harbor; Children, Erna, Emma & Frank. Mr. Patzloff's first name may be Ferdinand. Aunt Rose said the 2 sisters who came to the United States, last, (Grandpa's sisters) had nice clothes and were disappointed in conditions in U.S. They felt they were above the rest of the family, so there hasn't been any contact with them since a few weeks after they arrived.

One of Carl's brothers owned a shoe factory and was an Episcopalian minister. They remained in Germany, possibly in Pomerania.

In 1917 Grandpa was hit by a car, his leg was broken.

Carl & Augusta came over from Germany in 1892. A man named Herman Galt paid their passage and they worked for him to pay off their passage. They were hard workers and soon had their own farm. Marvin & Millie own the home place now. The original house has been modernized and enlarged. Marvin has abstracts that show the house dates back to pre civil war days.

Carl & Augusta came to Ellis Island when they arrived from Germany and went by train to Michigan. There was a black porter on the train and Grandpa had never seen a black man. When he went to the bathroom he laid his hat on a seat and the porter picked it up to dust it and Grandpa, slugged him because he thought the man was going to steal his hat.

Grandpa may have lived in Kaslin; he often said, "when I was a soldier in Kaslin". When Mark came back from WW.II, Grandpa said to him "When I was a soldier, there was men, these are cupcakes!"

Madeline Aldenburg

Max was going with Lou White from St. Jo. He got mad at her because she yelled a lot. They broke up & she married Max's best friend (Mac McFoley). Madeline was about 8 at this time. Max would sing "There, she goes, my old gal, my old Pal, here am I broken hearted." Max said that was his song.

After that Max went out & Martha Hook. They were engaged and he bought her a ring. She gave the ring back & he threw it in St. Jo. River. He joined Army after this: he just took off & no one knew where he was until he got in touch. He later got out on a compassionate discharge.

Max went out with Florence Seiman for quite some time. Florence wrote Madeline & asked how she would like to have her in the family; Florence & Madeline were friends. Alma Findley & Florence Seiman's mother are sisters. Max met Pearl at Seiman's.

BAL FFL 7 1st Mar 28-18
It is with great sadness that I'm writing to inform you of the death of Joan Burnham Barfelz. She passed away September 24, 2017.

This is her daughter Kim. In early September I went to Oklahoma to help Mom get ready to move to Michigan. I had been there 2 weeks, then one morning I discovered that she died peacefully in her sleep. She had health issues, but her death was completely unexpected.

I was made the executor of Joan's estate. It's been a whirlwind of grief and hard work cleaning out the house of someone who kept everything. Her life was in chaos, and it's been a challenge to put things in order and make things right. There was a lot of debt. I sold the Tryon, Oklahoma house at auction (as she had planned to do) and thankfully it brought a decent price. She already sold the rental houses a few months before. I sold her truck. The goal was to have enough money to pay off all the debts. She put Scott's name on the Michigan house a few years ago, so now he owns the house in Paw Paw.

Almost everything that was in the house when Joan moved to Oklahoma (Gale and Gwen's stuff) was either given to Gale's family, donated to charity, or thrown in the dumpster. Joan, Gale and even Gwen all hated to throw anything away, so the dumpster was completely full after a hectic 3 week cleanout. I've kept most of the items Joan collected from her many travels. It's going to take me some time to decide what to do with them.

I ended up staying in Oklahoma for 6 weeks. I never could have made it through without the help of many people. My husband John and daughter Maija came and assisted with the cleanout when I was completely overwhelmed. Mom's sister Phyllis, her husband Dave and their daughter Karen came down to Oklahoma with a trailer and took all the items I wanted to keep back up to Michigan. Mom's friend/neighbor Rosalie was amazing.... she helped with the hard work, let me stay with her after all the furniture was removed from the house, and continued to check on the house every day until it was sold in December.

Dealing with the death of a parent is an incredibly difficult process, but the added burden of chaos has made it challenging, to say the least. This has been a huge wake up call. Get your life in order, don't leave a mess behind for someone else to clean up.

But it's also taught me that I'm much stonger than I knew.

Joan was cremated and will be buried next to Gale at Fort Custer National Cemetary near Battle Creek Michigan. There will be a small service there on Friday, May 25 at 11:00 am. Anyone wishing to attend is welcome. Please let me know if you'd like to come, as we'll do something for lunch afterwards.

OBITUARIES

Phyllis Jean (Fuller) Johnson

Feb. 11, 1928 - Aug. 9, 2020

Phyllis Jean (Fuller) Johnson, 92, of St. Joseph, formerly of Stevensville, passed away peacefully on Aug. 9, 2020, at Caretel Inns of St. Joseph.

A celebration of life graveside service was at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Aug. 17, at Lincoln Township Cemetery, 5055 St. Joseph Ave., with Pastor Jim Morgan officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to BCF-Lakeshore Rotary Foundation, P.O. Box 25, Stevensville, MI 49127; or Caring Circle of Lakeland, 4025 Health Park Lane, St. Joseph, MI 49085.

Those wishing to leave an online condolence can do so at www.starks-menchinger.com.

Phyllis was born Feb. 11, 1928, in Benton Harbor to the late William and Helen (Mead) Fuller.

She graduated from Benton Harbor High School. She married her late husband, R. James "Jim" Johnson, on Aug. 29, 1953. The two were happily married for 18 years before Jim passed away in 1971.

Phyllis and Jim enjoyed spending time with their friends, going canoeing and skiing. They also loved to visit Thunder Lake in Fountain, Mich., where they had a cottage, and would never return home before they stopped at The Tavern for a delicious burger.

After Jim's death, Phyllis worked for Great Lake Building Service until she retired at the age of 80. She was a proud member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Baroda. Phyllis also liked to attend musicals and plays with her friends. She was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother, and will be missed dearly by all who knew her.

Phyllis is survived by her daughters, Sharon (Joseph) Vargo of Benton Harbor and Barbara (Kenneth) Mach of St. Joseph; and her very special grandson, Steven Mach and his fiancée, Harley Statler.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband, Jim; parents, William and Helen Fuller; sister and brother-in-law, Eleanor and Allen Umphrey; and nephew, William Umphrey.

Mrs. Wooley,

Received your note. Wm Mead was my grandmother's (Grace Bland Mead) half brother. I don't know much about Aunt Ida. You could contact her granddaughter Arline (Miller) Boschke (Leonard) 3014 Kemind, Stevensville. 429-5239. That is Grace Meads daughter. Also Phyllis Johnson. I believe she's listed under R. James Johnson. I'm not sure of that as she's been widowed a long time. She's Helen Meads daughter. Hopefully they can help you.

Uncle Bill and Aunt Ida lived on Livingston Rd next to the R.R. tracks. We lived on the other side of the R.R. Hope you can find what you need.

Lloydene Mast Johns

P.S. I'm a female - Lloyd Mast was my father, I'm Lloydene.

MIETZA (HISTMAN)
KONDZ

As a matter of fact, they found out I have relatives there in Berrien County which I never knew. Whether I look them up or not at this late date in life I don't know yet.

Bonnie, my youngest, was killed in South Haven in 1972 around Christmas and is buried there in a cemetery. She was killed in an automobile accident. She has always wanted to go back to Michigan so when she and Ed got married they decided to move back there. Being both kids were totally deaf we followed them the next month to see that they were all okay. Both had found good jobs and everything was going well with them. Bonnie had won several scholarships at the School for the Deaf in Berkeley and used them to get her schooling in the computer field which started out at that time with key punch and stuff like that. Ed was not familiar with the ice on the roads back east being a California boy and one day they were on there way to visit my mother and they crashed and she was killed. I had retired from my state job at the time we came back to see them but my doctor and everyone advised me it would be better to go back to work. I was a secretary for the State Water Resources Control Board in Fresno and liked my job real well. I went back and retired about five years ago permanently. The hurt is still there about Bonnie as she was a brilliant student in spite of her handicap and worked with hearing people here in Fresno and in Kalamazoo.

Myself, I worked as a grocery checker and bookkeeper at the Hardings Market in Kalamazoo and after Veydon and I got married and the kids all went their way I went and took a refresher course on my shorthand and typing and went to work for the government. I liked it real well and kind of missed it the first year. My husband also worked for the state and was a highway engineer in the Fresno office. He has been retired longer than I have. We do a lot of traveling with our trailer and also to other countries. All in all we keep very busy. Last year, of course, had to slow down because of his operation. He is doing a lot better now but still has to have regular checkups and X-rays and is on a strict medicine schedule. I thought he would be off of it this year but the doctor's say no as his EKG was a little off again so we decided to make this trip as I want to see my mother (Mrs. Knapp) Seems like a nephew of her husband has taken over and does not want me to know where she is and all that. I do not want her money but I do want it to be of good use for her. I finally traced her to the Jordon's Nursing Home in Bridgeman and when my daughters were back there my mother had them take her there to see an old friend and they said it was nice but I would feel better if I could see for myself. I send cards, letters and flowers but as she is 96 and cannot write I do not get a word whether she gets them or not. I believe she is still alive so want to investigate that myself and hope I can find out. Funny what money can do to some people.

Well Joan guess I had better close for now but sure was surprised to get your letter and sure wish I could be sure we would be there at that date as I would like to see everyone too. It has been an awful long time. Thanks again and tell everyone hello for me.

COPIES

Dear Joan: Thank you so much for the invitation to the reunion. Whether I will be there or not, I cannot say. We were planning on coming to Michigan in August but this will be the first long trip since my husband had a double heart surgery. So far we just made it to the coast with the trailer. I plan on starting out but as I said I may have to turn back. It has been a hectic year and sure do not know where the time has gone as have been real busy.

So you had four boys, well I had four girls. Here is a little rundown of my life up until now. After Lu was killed I bought a house here in California and thought I would never return to Michigan but after three years my folks persuaded me to bring the children back there. I remarried and that did not turn out too good so after a while I took the girls and we moved back to California. This is where I met my present husband, Veydon, and we have been married for 26 years now. When we got married, I had the four girls and he had two girls and a boy. The kids were all about the same age. When we went to the coast or the mountains we took two cars. But eventually the kids either got married or went off to school and were left alone.

Ann, my oldest girl, lives here in Fresno and is married to a very nice guy. Ann is in Administration for the County of Fresno. She is a psychologist and is now studying at the University here for her doctorate. She has a girl and a boy and both are married and the boy has a son (my greatgrandson) and the girl has a cute little girl (my greatgranddaughter). Boy are they ever precious too. Ann's husband, Jeff, is a math and science teacher here at one of the high schools. Her daughter, Tami and her husband, own a business to prepare homes that are newly built for the market.

Barbara, the second oldest, lives in Kenai, Alaska and is an accountant. Her three children live in Anchorage and are not married. Barbara says they are more interested in earning a million before they are thirty instead of giving her a grandchild. We expect her and her husband, Jerry, in October. Jerry is the superintendent at the place in Alaska that inspects the oil pipeline. They are in the process of building a log cabin. The log cabins there are nothing like Abe Lincoln lived in. The kids all work in Alaska--Amy is an accountant at a welding school, Gary is a draftsman and Mike works on the refrigeration for a big fish company.

Mary, the next down the line, is a highschool teacher in Altamont, Utah and is a home ec teacher and girl's counselor there. I swear that place is at the end of the world but she likes it there. She has a mobile home there and the school is only two blocks from her place. There is only 300 people in the whole town. She joined the Mormon Church about 12 years ago and went to BYU in Provo. Her and Barbara do a lot of geneology work and have found out a lot of interesting things.

Dear Frances:

I was certainly surprised to get your letter when I finally arrived home from Michigan. I had wanted so much to get to that reunion but my husband became ill and I threw everything in the car and headed for California as he had had double heart surgery last year and wanted to get home to our doctors here but was not able to make it. I got as far as Cheyenne, Wyoming and had to put him in the hospital. He had had some dental work done in early summer but did take the medicines he was supposed to but he contacted bacterial endocarditis which is very bad for a patient who had an aorta valve put in. There is two things that it could be either strep or staph and both are bad but they determined it was of the strep variety but they had to get him feeling better so he could be flown home. Our oldest daughter and her husband flew to Cheyenne to be with us and help us get home. Finally that following Saturday we were able to fly home with him in a wheelchair and all that. My daughter, Ann, met us at this airport with a guy that had an electric cart and took us right to their car and off to the hospital we went who was waiting for us. He is doing better and I will be able to bring him home this week but he will be still getting 3.5 million units of an antibiotic for six weeks via a home care service called OPTION Care which comes and furnishes everything we need plus instructions and immediate care or a visit 24 hours a day. Guess it is really nice and highly recommended by the doctor and the insurance company. So we will try that for now hoping he can lick this thing. Yes I would like a picture of anything you may have as I have never seen anything of my family. I also contacted the Dombrow family when I was in Michigan and learned a great deal there and saw pictures of me and my family. My son in law suggested I go under hypnosis as everyone here thinks I blocked all this out. Typewriter went haywire but I will finish this letter anyhow. Why in the world didn't anyone contact me at Bonnie's funeral? My husband told me all about the funeral as I guess I blocked that out too and to this day do not believe she is dead but that is something I have to work out yet after all the years that have gone by.

Anything you can get for me would be greatly appreciated. I always wished I could know my family but then I was always told no one wanted me and coming to find out both sides of the family had wanted me. I never could understand why my mother and father were buried in different places. I did visit Mrs. Knapp in Michigan and she remembered me and was happy to see us. I know she is being taken care of and if any of my real family would look in on her she would develop a blank as on the Dombrow side they went to see her and she wouldn't acknowledge anything. That is past history so I just let it go by as I do not want to bring any upsetting things to her as she is 96 and let the past be the past.

I would like to write to you more and keep in contact but I have to cut this letter short and go to the hospital so please excuse the shortness of this letter. Take care now and thanks so much for writing.

Love

Iva

Hi Everybody: Well I am so far behind in writing I thought I would do a sneaky one and type one copy and send a copy to all of you. Why I got so far behind I do not know. First of all I want to thank you all for the letters and pictures that you have sent me. They were greatly appreciated. I also hope that this letter finds you all well and happy.

Our weather here has really been something. I do not know what happened to spring guess it was missed this year. We started out with 103 temperatures in May then it cooled a bit and then we were back where it started from. We went to the coast a couple of times to get out of the heat but when it is so hot here it is so cold there. I haven't been able to figure it out and I have lived here over 27 years. At one motel in Eureka we had the heater on and two wool blankets and the same when we went south on the coast.

Veydon is doing pretty good now. We had some things going wrong but the doctor and I figured it out it must be his medicine and it was. The digoxin level was 2.0 and should only be 0.522 so it really fouled things up. We think we have that problem licked now and in July he has two of his doctors checking him out and we will go from there.

We are hoping to make Michigan this year but will fly to Detroit. Then rent a car and stay at the Howard Johnson motel there in Benton Harbor. Veydon is on such a crazy schedule that that is the best way we plan on doing it but we won't know until the two doctors go over him or not if we can go. I would rather drive my car but this is easier on him.

Barbara is doing fine and we talk to each other a couple times a month. They did have trouble with dogs that people just let to fend for themselves and they killed their chickens. They are part wolf and nothing to deal with. Between her husband and the neighbors they are all gone. The kids started out with more chickens as people are either giving them away or selling them cheap as they are leaving Alaska. She has regular egg customers but I think it is just a hobby for them. They also got the following new supply: chickens 106, turkeys 16, geese 6 (these are supposed to be their watch dogs along with their dogs), 50 cornish game hens and 6 pheasants. What a job that will be for them. Barb says the geese are whimps but I told her they were only 6 weeks old give them time. They put in a big garden and built new coups so they manage to keep busy. Barbara always wanted a log cabin in the wilds and she sure has one now but the log cabin is a big job. We sure enjoyed their visit when they came last fall. They had rented a motor home and did a lot of sightseeing.

I went in March to Utah to take care of my daughter, Mary, who is a high school teacher in Altamont (which is also at the ends of the earth). She was very ill at the beginning but after the doctor took out her gall bladder she improved 100% and went right back to teaching school. I drove by myself and took a short cut thru some back country and I don't think even the Indians have discovered it yet. I was driving up the side of one mountain and when I got at the nine thousand elevation it started to snow and boy thanks to my trust car I just kept going forward and I finally made it. I have travelled Utah but not that part of it. Everyone is so nice there so everything worked out fine. My son-in-law put Veydon on the plane for me after I had been there a while and he flew into Salt Lake and I picked him up. It was snowing then down there too and very cold but I had brought winter clothes in the car with me when I left. We wanted to do some geneology at the Mormon center there but didn't have much luck. Barbara is more qualified than I am at finding that stuff. I was trying to find some of Veydon's relatives and I got at a point I thought the Indians got them but she has taken over now so she is beginning to find more.

My daughter, Ann, has moved to San Jose where she took over the job of Executive Director of the Santa Clara Interagency program. She's the big shot. They bought a beautiful new Spanish type house in the San Jose hills and guess it is something else according to Tami, her daughter, who her and her husband helped them move. We will be going up in a couple of weeks but so many have helped them and they have so much to do even if it is a new place that we thought we would wait until they got in. We have a bedroom and a bath there overlooking the hills and the wildflowers. She just loves her job. Her husband is a math and science teacher. They rented their house here to his father. Jeff lost his mother on memorial day due to too many surgeries. I guess she couldn't take it any more. We are looking for Ann and Jeff next weekend and know we had better get up there too. She took her cat with her and in spite of the fancy basket, cushion and all the rest of that sophisticated stuff he prefers under the deck on the dirt and rocks. She had three but one died and the old one she left at the old place as she was afraid the trip would be too traumatic for her. Her neighbor lady is taking care of it and she buys the food and all. Dorothy has 8 cats so one more or less does not make any difference.

Well I guess I have rattled on long enough and gotten caught up with the news so guess I had better close for now and tell you all good-bye and hope to see you in August.

All our love

Hi -- When you asked me about Aunt Minnie, my mind went blank so I looked up the info in my records. She was born 2 Oct. 1887 in Woserwitz, Prussia. Her given name was: Bertha Johanna Wilheminie. She was raised by her uncle, Ernest Kunde. Married a man named WEYLAND and she died in Chicago Sept. 1955. Had 4 children: Herman who was married to Viola, Ludwig, Frieda and Anna who married Pete Salvato and died about 1944-had 6 children.

My mother, Kate and I went to Frieda's wedding in Chicago when I was about 12 or 13. (1938/1939). Remember that it was really, really hot! Aunt Minnie lived in 2nd story apartment above a store and there was a tavern on the corner (Leavitt St & Addison). I think Herman was a cab driver and Ludwig worked at Riverview park which we could see from Aunt Minnie's front window.

LIZZIE
Dorothy (Kunde) Mathieu was daughter of Lizzie Kunde who never married. She lived with her three brothers on a farm on Livingston Road, Bridgman. For many years, ~~she~~ worked in the basement of Rimes & Hildebrand store in St. Joe.

DOMBROW

Gustave August Dombrow was born July 5, 1861 or 1863, in Louenberg, Germany. He came to America between 1878 and 1880 and settled in Chicago, Illinois, where he worked as a molder in an iron works factory.

Albertina Henriette Waak was born July 5, 1861, in Pommern, Germany. She probably came to America in 1872 with her family, and they also settled in Chicago. Albertina's father, Gustave Waak, was naturalized on Halloween, October 31, 1872.

On March 26, 1885, Pastor W. Boettcher married Gustave and Albertina in the First Evangelical Lutheran Church in Chicago. Albertina was the mother of twelve children, but only four were known to have reached maturity: Clara, born August 5, 1889; Gustave Wilhelm Rudolpho, born May 25, 1893; Elsa, born November 20, 1896; and Clarence, born February 12, 1904. All of them were born in Chicago, and they lived on School Street.

On June 17, 1890, in the Cook County Illinois Circuit Court, the senior Gustave Dombrow renounced his allegiance to the Emperor of Germany, pledged his allegiance to the United States and became a naturalized U.S. citizen.

Gustave and Albertina appear in the 1910 Census in Chicago on April 27th, and some time after that date they moved to Michigan.

Gustave and Albertina purchased "Eighteen and Ninety-Two Hundredths (18 92/100) acres of land more or less" in Lake Township near Bridgman, Michigan, on October 5, 1911. The land is described as "commencing at a stone Thence running along the South line of said Section West Twenty-six and thirty- four Hundredths (26 34/100) chains to an Iron Stake thence east Twenty-six and Thirty- four Hundredths (26 34/100) chains to an Iron stake. Thence South Six and eighty-six Hundredths (6 86/100) chains to place of Beginning." It was located in an area called Jericho in Lake Township.

Albertina Dombrow died of a stroke at her home on January 4, 1932. She is buried in Ruggles Cemetery near Baroda. Not long after Albertina's death, Grandpa Gustave, Sr. sold his farm in Jericho located at 1574 West Lemon Creek Road to Werner Mineta. He then went to live with Herbert and Elizabeth Knapp and Iva Dombrow on the Knapp farm located at 6538 Becht Road, Coloma Township. It is said that the Knapp's grew berries and grapes and that they also had dairy cows. The farm employed thirty workers at one time. Gustave, Sr. died at the Knapp's on January 6, 1937, and is buried beside Albertina in Ruggles Cemetery.

Elsie Dombrow stayed behind in Chicago and later married Edward Stone (born May 28, 1892) there in April 1915. They had three children. Edward, Jr. was born in Chicago in 1917 and died in infancy. Pearl, who was born in 1920 and married a Burke, had two girls and was living in Illinois until she died in Des Plaines on March 12, 1982. Wayne was born in July 1928, also in Chicago and married Charlotte. They had three children. After Wayne retired from the military he moved to Atwater, California. Edward, Sr. died in St. Joseph, Michigan on November 19, 1950, and Elsie passed away on November 7, 1981.

Clara Dombrow married Edward Lippert, Jr.(born January 29, 1884, in Germany) on March 16, 1907. Their six children were Edward, Jr.(1907) and Laura (1909) both born in Chicago. Myrtle (1911), Herbert (1915), Dorthea (1917) and Gertrude (1920) were all born in Bridgman, Michigan. Edward, Sr. died November 25, 1970 in Alabama and Clara died in 1986 at the Trussville Nursing Home in Trussville, Alabama.

Clarence, the youngest of Gustave and Albertina's children, married Ida Marie Rennhack on June 8, 1929, in the Zion Evangelical Church in Baroda. The minister was Rev. Curt Siedenbergh. Clarence worked for Emlong Nurseries, in Stevensville as a nurseryman for 43 years. Ida worked for several years for Shepherd Casters Products in St. Joseph. They had one daughter Nora Ella, who was born on March 5, 1930, in Bridgman. She married Henry "Bud" Nielsen and had two daughters: Noreen Kay born October 28, 1956, in St. Joseph and Diana (Nielsen) Grinnell born August 20, 1954, in Prosser, Washington. Diana passed away on June 16, 1984, and Bud died in August 2006. Nora still lives in St. Joseph and enjoys the company of her three grandsons.

Gustave and Albertina's oldest son, Gust, married Margaret Frances Barfelz in Bridgman on May 12, 1918. Margaret was born November 6, 1894, in Baroda. On their marriage record, Gust's occupation is shown as clerk and Margaret's, as a factory worker. The marriage is recorded in the marriage registry of the Lutheran Church in Bridgman.

Margaret Barfelz c. 1914

Family members say that Margaret Barfelz was called Grace before her marriage to Gust. Grace and her sister Anna lived together while they worked for Cooper Wells & Company in St. Joseph. The company made men's and women's hosiery. Both young ladies enjoyed social activities on the weekends. On Saturdays, they went to Silver Beach recreational park on the shores of Lake Michigan; and on Sundays, they went to the Bluffs.

After their marriage and because Grace had contracted tuberculosis and was in poor health, Gust took her to Arizona and New Mexico where he thought the drier climate might help her. They lived in Madrid, New Mexico, a booming coal mining town of 2,000, where Gust worked as a bookkeeper for the railroad company that transported coal to Sante Fe. Their only child, our mother, Iva France Dombrow, was born in Madrid, New Mexico, on January 28, 1922.

When Grace's condition worsened, Gust took her back home to Michigan, where she and our mother stayed with Grandma Barfelz, away from Gust. Grace died on January 21, 1923. (Her tombstone has the incorrect date of 1922). Grace's funeral was held both in her parents' home and later that day in the Bridgman Lutheran Church. Grace was survived by her husband, daughter and three sisters: Mrs. (Minnie) Charles Chicago, Mrs. (Anna) Paul Pagel of Bridgman and Mrs. (Rose) A. Froberg Harbor, and two brothers, Edward and Max Barfelz, both resided in Bridgman. The family recalls that Great Grandmother Barfelz made the burial dress for Grace. It was silver gray with tiny pearl beads on it. All of Grace's sisters helped sew on the pearls. Anna, Grace's sister, washed Grace after her death in preparation for the funeral. Grace's casket was put against the left wall of the living room in the house which is located at 10671 California Road, south of Bridgman. Grace is buried in the Bridgman Cemetery. A favorite chair of Grace's, a wicker square-backed rocker, went to Grace's cousin Nora Dombrow Nielsen. Grace's favorite flower was the snowball bush, so her sisters planted one next to her grave. Since it grew so tall, it may not still be there.

After Grace's death, Gust and his baby daughter, Iva, went to live with his parents on their farm in Jericho. Iva attended elementary school at the Hathaway School located on Hinchman Road in Jericho.

Two and a half years after Grace's death, Gust also died of tuberculosis on August 23, 1925, leaving Iva an orphan. Gust is buried in the Baroda cemetery because his family thought that Grace was responsible for his death, and they did not want Grace and Gust buried together in the same cemetery.

On August 25, 1925, just two days after Gust's death, Fred W. Gast was appointed guardian of young Iva and her estate. Later, on October 10, 1925, with the court's approval, Mr. Gast resigned his right to guardianship of Iva and gave his consent for Gustave and Albertina Dombrow, Iva's paternal grandparents, to adopt her. While Iva's grandparents were given court approval to adopt her, Mr. Gast remained as guardian of the estate until June 17, 1931, when Charles H. Westphal took over. At the age of fourteen, on January 28, 1936, Iva requested that Herbert E. Knapp be appointed as her guardian. The courts approved Mr. Knapp as guardian in September 1936. Gust had also set up a trust fund for Iva in the Bridgman State Bank, but that was lost when the bank went under financially in 1929, as most of its funds were apparently lost in the stock market crash.

through the local court. Herbert E. Knapp, who was born on October 8, 1891, passed away on February 26, 1972. His wife Elizabeth Willamena (Peters) Knapp, who was born on November 26, 1890, passed away in 1994 at the age of 103.

Luther was barely 22 years old when he was killed in the Philippine Islands in October 1944 in World War II. He was a Navy sailor aboard the U.S.S. Hoel that sank on October 27, 1944. Iva died in Utah in 1998.

Family recollections about life on the farm:

Albertina and Gustave had a smokehouse on their farm and a favorite was smoked goose in cheesecloth.

The younger Gustave was called Gust, and he invented a charcoal-based salve that people traveled all the way from Chicago to purchase. It was used to soothe working hands.

Edward Dombrow (Clarence?) used to take his father lunch out in the fields on the Jericho farm. One day, Gustave said to his son, "All the trouble I ever had never happened."

Grandfather Dombrow (Iva Frances Dombrow's paternal grandfather) used snuff and Grandpa Barfelz (Iva's maternal grandfather) smoked a corn cob pipe.

Iva had a pet dog on the Becht farm. It was a white Spitz called Snowball.

LOOKEY

Iva and Uncle Clarence, 1928

In the seventh grade, while attending Clymer School, Iva drew a picture of a Japanese lady and a map of Michigan and wrote an essay. She won a trip to Detroit for these efforts, but the Knapps would not allow her to go.

Iva graduated from Benton Harbor High School in 1940, although her official diploma says June 1941. Because she had enough school credits, Iva worked for the Griffendorf Distributing Company as a secretary, typist and filer while still in high school. After high school, she went to work as a secretary-typist at Ross Carrier. She could type over 100 words per minute.

Mother was still living with the Knapps at the Becht Road farm when she attended high school. She received 25 cents a week allowance for bus fare to the high school, and she walked home. That's when she met our father. Our parents, Iva Dombrow and Luther Shine, would walk together from Clymer School located at Clymer and Hagar Shore Roads. They would go to Rocky Gap Road Park to "neck".

Iva Frances Dombrow married ^{JOHN} Jesse Luther Shine on June 27, 1942, in the Coloma Methodist Church where Luther and Howard Wooley were first ushers. The Rev. Ray Laurence was the minister. The wedding reception was held in the Knapps' barn, which was located across the street from the Becht Road farm. Iva and Luther had two daughters, Elizabeth Ann born April 16, 1943, in Benton Harbor, Michigan; and Barbara Jean born June 13, 1944 in San Francisco, California. At the age of 21, on January 28, 1943, Iva officially released Mr. Knapp from his guardianship duties

Dear Frances:

Just a few lines to let you know that I heard back from the Polish Genealogical Society. I had sent them copies of the confirmations of Minnie Kunde and Anna Barfelz which you had sent me. I asked if they could make out the names of the birthplaces and where they were/are. Well heard back from them today and the two towns are Sulechówko and Lejkowo, in the Province of Koszalin. Since Sulechowko is a much smaller town, it shows the town of Lejkowo as having the Civil Registration. So they are very close. The German names for the two towns are Leikow and Klein Soltiko, which is what is written on the confirmations. Of course, they are now in Poland.

Too me this is a great find and I intend to pursue it. I have such a problem getting info out of Poland, but want to check out the LDS files first. I might be able to get some info on microfilm. Cooperation from Poland is the worse drawback on our foreign heritage, but persistence just might pay off. At least now we have a town name and that's a real help. That is much more than I have on the Dombrow side, but maybe I will luck out there in time.

Will keep you posted on anything new that comes up.

Sincerely,

Barbara

Dear Francis:

I was so excited about your finding the passenger list that I ordered the LDS film #0830469 which is the Baltimore arrival lists from Hamburg. This is what I found.

I notice that on the census information Ernst listed the year of immigration as 1894, but he actually arrived in 1893 along with his sister and family. Notice the name is shown as Paul. I'm sure they meant Carl, but it was definitely a "P". Also note the children we did not have listed before. Evidently Meta died sometime and somewhere unknown to us after they arrived. Also Anna's age doesn't fit, but they could have misunderstood or something. Everything else fits just fine. You didn't mention any of this in your letter so assume it didn't show on the film you read. Thought you would like to have it. Any ideas as to who the relative named Haase is?

Please keep in touch. Will keep you informed of any new finds.

P.S. also town of Leikow fits in.

Best wishes,

Barbara

Hi: Well here I am again doing a xerox bit in order to get caught up with my letter writing. I sure do not see how I could of worked and still had time to travel and do up stuff around the house. Either I am getting old or something.

We had more insulation put in and also had new windows put in all through the house. They are sure great as they are double pane and keep the hot and the cold out. Also are great for keeping out all the neighborhood noises. We had our contractor install them and that left me with another bout with the spring cleaning but we are pretty caught up with them. We had three almond trees cut down so now we are t~~x~~ackling the stumps. We just about got one taken care of. We cannot do much on them at a time but will not be able to plant another tree until after Christmas. That is when the trees and stuff come on the market for planting here.

My daughter, Ann, is selling her place here in Fresno as they are both working in San Jose, California and it is so hard to be here all the time. She stayed with us last week for a couple of days after coming down from Sacramento where she had a meeting with the Attorney General on this awful drug and gang violence with the kids. I guess it is really bad. Her and two other people were selected by the Governor to see what can be done. I do not think anything can be done until they stop the drugs from coming into the U.S. When she got here a fellow she worked with here in Fresno County had died of pneumonia so she stayed for the funeral. Her husband came down and did some work there so I would not have a lot to do. All I do is water around, run out the hot water from the solar system and put chlorine in the pool. They have sprinklers in the front and hired a man to mow and trim in the front so it isn't too bad.

Barbara is selling her place in Alaska. I hate to see them sell out as they did so much work in building a log cabin and also planting trees and everything. They have a young couple who have steady jobs there that are interested in it so maybe by this time it is sold. Barb and Jerry plan on settling in the Coos Bay area of Oregon. Of course I love it there too. Gary is going on to the University of Colorado. Mike intends in setting up a bus iness in Northern California and Amy doesn't know if she will go with which one as yet. At least they are closer to us now or will be.

We have not wandered too far from home and now must stay close as Veydon's anuerysm has grown from 3.5 to 4.7 and he is about ready for surgery again which I dread. Too many complications for him.

July 4. 1988

I sure miss the traveling as we came to Michigan once a year besides the other traveling we did but then we have seen a lot of the U.S.A. in our time. We did take the trailer to the coast last week and stayed for four days. Ann and Jeff helped get us hitched up and Virginia and Calvin came down to see us and we all went out for dinner as it was Veydon's 80th birthday. It was sure nice at the coast but we had a thunder storm that Sunday morning and that Sunday evening which is something unusual and the first I had ever seen at the coast. It has been over 100 here so it was a welcome relief. You know we have these storms but no rain and they always set the fires in the mountains. We stay close to home on the Fourth too as too many nuts with fireworks. We have put in so many new things the last few years I do not want to have to go over it again.

Guess where Mary is in Utah it has been so dry too. She says the weeds grow good. Seems she has a nice garden in. Borrowed two calves from the local vet to keep her front lawn mowed down. They are doing a good job of it too and getting pretty fond of Mary so she will hate to see them go.

Well guess I had better close for now and get busy. It is about time to shut up all the windows and keep the cool morning air in. I am glad we have low electric bills as some have 100 to 200 a month. Ours last month was 34.10 so our system is working good and will eventually pay for itself.

Take care now and hope this makes up for all the letters I am behind. I want to get all my work done up so when Veydon goes to the hospital that will be the job for me. There is no getting around it but when is the question.

Love Iva and family

Hello Mary,
We want to express our sympathy in the loss of your Mom. I could tell when I called you the last time and then you left me talk to Iva that she had passed since talking to her last. She was a special person and kept the memories close. When we would talk she said how much you did for her with the caring she provided. Also how beautiful it was out there in Utah. Perhaps some day you would visit us in Mich, okay?

October 1, 1998

Dear Nora and Bud,

I really appreciated your card. I never realized before how much the cards, flowers, visits, phone calls, etc. would help a person heal after the death of a loved one. Thanks again!

We have never corresponded before in the past but after getting your phone call and having a chance to talk to you a few weeks ago makes me feel like we've been friends forever. It was a good thing you called when you did as Mother had already started to go down hill but it was at a slow pace. After that time it seemed like her condition was gradually accelerating. I think she had another mini stroke while I was changing her diapers one-day. I happen to be looking her in the eyes at the time when she said 'ouch' then she looked away. She went wherever people go after a stroke. This time it affected her right side. All the previous strokes were on the left. She had always gotten better with time after the previous strokes but this time she didn't. It affected her right arm, swallowing mechanism, and speech. Her memory got worse and she finally stopped talking. Most of the time she was in "never, never land". Very seldom did she ever look me in the eyes again. I finally had to put her in a hospital bed, which was in the diningroom where she had been sleeping all along as she stopped using the stairs along time ago. I ended up sleeping in the same room with her as I was too afraid to leave her alone. The last month of her life consumed most of my time which I don't regret for a minute. It was like having a 115 lb. Baby. I never thought I could ever change diapers but as I cared for Mother a sweet peace always came over me. During that last month her eating slowed down considerably, also, until the last two days she consumed almost nothing. I can look back now and see how things fell in place to prepare her for her death. I know now that it was her time to go. Of course, I was not at all prepared nor was I aware it was her time to go.

Saturday, the 5th, her temperature started to go up so instead of waiting for it to get really high I called the doctor for a prescription. The pills brought her temperature down to normal by Sunday morning and she was looking at me and watching the dog and cats so I naturally thought she would get better. About 3 weeks earlier, we both came down with something that ended up in our lungs. We both had to be put on antibiotics. I couldn't shake it off and had to take more than one prescription so I just figured she was following the same path. About noon on Sunday she couldn't drink anything and I noticed that her fingers were blue and as I looked further I noticed her left leg was strange also. I called the doctor and told him I felt I needed to take her to the hospital because I felt she wasn't getting enough oxygen. I took her right into emergency. Her left leg was "mottled"—looked like a burgundy colored cobweb covering her entire leg. She had a blood clot in that leg. In fact, by the afternoon both of her legs were considered "gone"—there was no response in either one. That was when I realized that I wouldn't be taking her home this time. Mother had always said she didn't want to have her legs amputated like an aunt of hers. The doctor informed me that it was very unlikely she would live. I didn't want her to live like a vegetable. In the past, she had told this doctor that under no circumstances was she to be kept alive by artificial means. By 11 p.m. Mother was neurological gone so the doctor suggested we remove all IVs and the oxygen so her death could be speeded up as Mother was going at a very slow pace and the doctor said it would take days for her to die. Of course, I agreed with him, knowing Mothers wishes.

I was with her at all times. I stayed the night and decided to be there no matter how many days it would take. The idea of someone dying alone is something that has always bothered me. There was no way I would let Mother die alone. Her breathing was heavy during the night so I said a couple of prayers asking God to take her as I couldn't stand the idea of her suffering. I know that the Lord was with me as I would get promptings from the Holy Ghost to say things to her so she would know it was okay to die. In her dreams during this summer, Mother had gone on several trips with Veydon who died in 1992. She dreamed those trips of course, and had said that once he was at the house. I think that he had visited her to help prepare her for death. Before she stopped talking, she would ask me constantly each day when were we going home and where were the people who owned the house we were at. I would tell her it was our house and that we lived there. She knew she didn't belong there anymore but may not have realized that she would die soon. During Sunday night I told her it was okay to die, to look for Jesus and go to him. Still nothing was happening. Then I was prompted to tell her that it was okay to die and for her to look for Veydon and that he would take her home to Jesus. I told her that I loved her. That Tiger, her cat, loved me

In the past, she had told this doctor that under no circumstances was she to be kept alive by artificial means. By 11 p.m. Mother was neurological gone so the doctor suggested we remove all IVs and the oxygen so her death could be speeded up as Mother was going at a very slow pace and the doctor said it would take days for her to die. Of course, I agreed with him, knowing Mother's wishes.

I was with her at all times. I stayed the night and decided to be there no matter how many days it would take. The idea of someone dying alone is something that has always bothered me. There was no way I would let Mother die alone. Her breathing was heavy during the night so I said a couple of prayers asking God to take her as I couldn't stand the idea of her suffering. I know that the Lord was with me as I would get promptings from the Holy Ghost to say things to her so she would know it was okay to die. In her dreams during this summer, Mother had gone on several trips with Veydon who died in 1992. She dreamed those trips of course, and had said that once he was at the house. I think that he had visited her to help prepare her for death. Before she stopped talking, she would ask me constantly each day when were we going home and where were the people who owned the house we were at. I would tell her it was our house and that we lived there. She knew she didn't belong there anymore but may not have realized that she would die soon. During Sunday night I told her it was okay to die, to look for Jesus and go to him. Still nothing was happening. Then I was prompted to tell her that it was okay to die and for her to look for Veydon and that he would take her home to Jesus. I told her that I loved her. That Tiger, her cat, loved me and would be okay so she wouldn't have to worry about her. I told her I forgave^{her} for the things she did to me and hoped she would forgive me. This is what finally worked because at 5:28 a.m. she took a deep breath and exhaled 3 times then no more breathing. During this time I held her hand and told her I loved her. The nurse finally came in and held her other hand as the rest of her body shut down. She was dead by 5:30 or 5:31. I had a friend bring me one of her dresses (red, her favorite color) and some underwear so at 6:30 we dressed her before the mortuary came.

I have only dealt with the death of cats and dogs. This was my first experience with a human being. In a way it was very sad and in a way it was beautiful as I was able to talk to her and help her to leave this life. With the time that Mother and I had spent together, I had learned to understand why Mother acted the way she did in her life. I had learned to forgive and to love her as a Mother. I know that when I die that she and I will be friends for all eternity. Had Mother not come to live with me I would never have had this blessing. I would not change the past for anything.

I know that Veydon was waiting there so at the moment Mother left this life she would have someone there to walk her back to Heaven. I also know that she was greeted by her parents who she had no memory of and all the other relatives she never knew. The Knapps did the wrong thing by forbidding her any contact with her family. That really hurt her. Mother suffered her entire life thinking that the only thing life had to offer was being abandoned by those she loved. I know she is being healed by Jesus and all those family members and is receiving love that she never knew in this life. I am so grateful that life does not end when the body dies in this life.

I am so glad that Mother had a chance to get to know you. I hope that we can keep in touch. I'm pretty much alone in this world so a little bit of family would be appreciated. Mother didn't realize it but she had many friends here in Lewiston. I had a graveside memorial for her the next Sunday evening. She had 40 friends show up. It was right before sunset so it was so peaceful and beautiful. I know Mother was watching so that she could see she had many friends and was loved here. Ann, Barbara and I buried her ashes on Friday. They didn't want the Church or her friends there so I had a private memorial later for her friends. It was a beautiful ceremony!

Well, I hope I didn't leave anything out. I tried to explain her passing as thoroughly as possible so you could visualize it. I know Mother loved you and always appreciated hearing from you. Glad I was able to talk to you a little and hope to hear from you again.

Then he will be cremated.

He will be buried at Fort Custer M.

By the way who in the family was born in Germany?

Sandy Jackson
Gale's SISTER

Jan. 27, 1988

Dear Frances Woolsey,

Received your letter of Jan. 13, 1988. Yes, in all probability it was my husband's parents whom you visited in Chicago. They had 4 boys and 1 girl. My husband was Walter Buecking one of the sons. His mother, Emma, had a sister Marie who married a Kunder and had relatives in Bridgman. Marie Kunder and her husband had 8 children, I believe, and they lived here in St. Joseph. I am working on this part of the family, too. One of her (Marie Kunder) daughters still lives here in St. Joseph. Her name is Gertrude Doroteivitz. I called Gertrude and she remembers you. I know the Kunder's. Most of them are no longer living.

When you return to Coloma, give me a call and we'll get together and compare notes, unless you have ancestor charts you would like to send me. However, I will be traveling and teaching and very busy until the first of May.

Marie Kunder was my husband's aunt. The Buecking lived here in St. Joseph for awhile before moving to Chicago.

I could use your help and I'll try to help you after you come back to Coloma.

I always am amazed at the interesting things that happen when one searches for ancestors. It's so much fun.

Please call me when you get home in May. My telephone number is (616) 983-1850.

CHRISTMAS - 2008

Gale and I are in pretty good health. We eliminated the little shows and did 15 big shows this year, which meant less traveling. We had to put our dog, Ginger, to sleep. She was a diabetic, was blind and went into kidney failure. We have another dog named Shadow, he is a traditional cocker.

JOAN &
KIDS

My father's house finally sold and his estate is now settled. The biggest tragedy this year was that my 44 year old daughter, Shelly, died in July of unknown causes. Scott lives in my Mich house and is a diabetic now. Still works for his father. Kim and John live in Chicago with Maija. Kim works for a staging company (does book work) and volunteers at the food pantry. Maija just turned 14, is into fencing, debate, plays the guitar, trombone, bowling, and softball. We just did an "M" project, where everyone decorated a wood M to hang on her wall. She has 64 to date.

My sister was diagnosed two years ago with celiac sprue and has been reconfirmed, but she also has Waldenstom's disease which is a non-hodgins lymphoma (an autoimmune disease) both of these are inherited. She has had a month's worth of chemo and a couple of blood transfusions. At the moment she feels great. At the same time, her husband, Dave, got hit in the head with a hay bale and broke his neck. He finally had surgery and is doing much better.

Alan and Pam are working, Alan works at home, He just had a bout of pneumonia. Greg still isn't working and James, as long as he has his medication, is great. Brian got sent to China for a month to train people on computers. Missy was mad she couldn't go. Adrianna thinks she is queen. Becky and Mike and the kids, Myesha and De'Nivya are good.

Max is working two jobs, one for the government and part time at Bass Pro. Joan is in third stages of Alshiemers now. They visited Max's kids this summer in Ohio and Kentucky. Gena has lost her daughter, Samantha, and is facing jail time and we hear she is pregnant again.

Gale now has his car barn and a new tractor to play with. We have been going to auctions and I am slowly filling up this house with stuff. Gale raised his hand for an opening bid of $500 on a 96 dodge van with 71,000 miles - we now have a van. It's really sad to see items go so cheap.

We hope that everyone has a good 2009 - keeps their job and be sure to say "I love you" to your loved ones. Joan and Gale

And the good news is that married fatherhood is a man's most important pathway to happiness. Being a loving husband and committed father is the best part of being a man. The essence of this value is a father for every child. One well-known psychologist, Judy Wallerstein, in a new book about marriage and what makes it work, trumpeted the urgency when she said, "The need is greater than ever. The village is gone; the extended family is gone. And the home is a haven. Children absolutely need a family. They cannot grow up by themselves."

And they all agreed that this kind of man is a rare breed.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS 2016

What can I say, I'm in Oklahoma. It's too hot too cold, too windy, fires are burning or the earth is shaking. Even though the courts accepted Gale's will, Probate is still pending, not sure why, except I think the attorney is holding it up since I owe him money. Cant sell properties without my name on them and that was the jest of the whole probate was to get my name on properties.

I now have offers on two rent houses and the "farm" land and house. Two offers on the farm and land, since I havent had it surveyed, is extremely low, of course everyone wants a really good deal. I like the idea of selling the house and land to one person even though I would get more monies if I split it up, according to realators.

I gave permission as most local people did for the oil companies to do their seismic testing again. This time the man sat in the living room and told me they would have to cut down a couple of trees in the woods to complete their survey. I said alright. Well, they were extremely sneaky, and it seems they have cut down about 10 acres of trees. Their ground shaking equipment is very large and in order to drive back there and turn around they had to put in a couple circle driveways. It looks like they are building a sub division back there.

When I called to try to find out what was going on, they and the equipment suddenly disappeared or they would have cut down a lot more. It was marked with bright red plastic strips, like a driveway, when they tried to do the same to the neighbor in the back he chased them away with a shotgun. They at least owe me for surface damage, but going to court is lengthy and costly, and not worth it.

Kim was able to fly all of us to Maija's college graduation in Grand Rapids Michigan in April. She landed a job with Social Services in GR as an ~~account~~ manager, She and her girl friend have moved to a house. I have not heard or seen Anna and Phillip so do not know what they are doing.

Joan is not good, in ICU with out of control diabetes and kidney failure, Max is good Becky, Mike, Myesha, DeNivya are all doing well, Missy lost Adrianna to Brian, Missy is in one of my rent houses and refuses to leave and hasnt paid rent in 8 months.

Last year James was caught and put on probation for indecent acts to a minor although he is 15. He did it again and is now in the county jail and has been for the past 3 months.

ended up doing 9 local shows and almost all my merchandise is gone. I sold the tractor and the cars.

I really need to get to Michigan but driving there and back is not an option having a big auction and selling everything is in the near future - will wait til warmer weather.

IN EDITOR'S

WHY ORGANIZE?

Editor, Herald-Press: Well, the NRA is dead. So what are we going to do next? Do we want another plan, or one similar to it, or what will you have?

In my opinion people are too confused, dismayed, tired and weary to answer this with any just precision or enough conviction to make even themselves believe it.

Our President is undecided. He wants to wait until the people recover their senses—sufficient to do some logical thinking and voice their wants and desires.

That brings us home—brings us to you, dear reader, to your family and neighborhood, your community. That brings us to the object of writing, so let's get to the point.

The labor employing circles of the twin cities are confronted with a new problem; namely this—the very evident and conspicuous desire of the laboring class of people to organize.

Now, just what there is about organized labor that the industrialists should dread so, I don't know. They are all organized and they admit, in fact, boast that it is the most sensible and profitable thing they ever did. Perhaps that answers it. They have found that a number of horses pulling on the same rope in the same direction can pull a great deal more than one, however strong that one, and are afraid that when the laboring class of people organize, they may progress and become somewhat independent. But, somehow the fact that people are organizing has become quite a thorn in the backbone of our industrialists. They don't care to admit it, but it is a fact, and how to cope with it and retain some portion of their dignity, respect and capital, is a problem and worthy of their steel.

Now let us focus our attention on the employers. I am not a business man, so do not know a great deal about the various trials and tribulations of an employer. I've listened to sob stories about prices, that someone else is underselling him, and that the volume of business has so decreased that they are practically ensnared in a financial straight jacket.

Greed, selfishness, and utter disregard for another's rights and welfare have kept the working class of people in this community at a starvation point for years. This is proven by the fact that the twin cities haven't grown enough to be worth mentioning. The progress that has been made cannot be attributed to our industrialists' interest in the community, aside from the profit in dollar and cents that could be gained by it. The biggest share of our improvements must be credited directly and solely to the farmers.

Now about it to toler and com you are

CALLS HERRIOT
IN PARIS CRISISRadical Socialists' Leader
Summoned as Laval
Fails

BULLETIN

PARIS, June 5 (AP)—Former Premier Edouard-Herriot was asked by President Lebrun today to try forming a new government for France.

(Copyright, Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 5.—Pierre Laval, foreign minister, failed today in his presidential assignment of organizing a new French government to succeed the overthrown cabinet of Fernand Bouisson.

Bouisson had lasted in office only three days and twenty hours. Laval, hesitatingly accepting the commission of President Lebrun, tried for nearly 24 hours to gather together ministers for a cabinet, but at the end of that time he was forced to tell the president he had failed.

As soon as Laval had left the Elysee palace the president began calling other prospects for the premiership to his study.

PAY UP OR QUIT!
SWEITZER TOLDDeadline Tomorrow Noon Is Set for Cook County
Treasurer

CHICAGO, June 5—(AP)—The Cook county board ordered County Treasurer Robert M. Sweitzer today to pay over the $414,129 he allegedly withheld from the county clerk's office by noon tomorrow or resign.

Sweitzer, the best vote getter in the Democratic party in Chicago and who became county treasurer last December after 24 years as county clerk, a few minutes earlier had agreed to pay over $350,000 "tomorrow, or certainly this week," to County Clerk Michael J. Flynn. He also had agreed to place the balance of the money claimed in escrow until he has had time to check the "controversial items" in an audit made at Flynn's request.

In answer to the blunt question, "Do you have the money?" asked by Clayton F. Smith, president of the board, at the suggestion of State Attorney Thomas J. Courtney, Sweitzer replied:

"I was before the board Monday and was told by the finance committee that I would have until next Monday to make my final check and turn over the money. That check is not completed."

Contract for 30 additional load stalls to be added at the west end of the two rows now standing. Price was awarded to Martin J. Dunk at a meeting of the twin city market board and farmers' advisory committee.

The new stalls, 15 to a row, will be constructed at a cost of $2,109 complete. The only other bidder was Pearson Construction company, who offered to do the job for $1,730 without paint.

Mr. Dunkirk presented a $2,000 insurance policy to cover the work from fire and windstorm damage. He has been the builder of other market stalls, and will start work on the new addition within the next two weeks so that the platforms will be ready for use before trading gets into full speed.

Market Master Roscoe D. Krieger reported that already he has rented all the stalls to season buyers that he dare without restricting truckers to open parking spaces. The addition of the 30 new stalls is expected to relieve the condition materially. The market board has found that stall built in the spring pay for themselves before the season is ended through daily use of the buyers who come here to trade.

The market board ordered the mailing of the new 8-page market pamphlets to each of the 2,168 truckers who bought here last year. Consideration also was given to a placard advertising plan such as was used during the grape season last year. Placards illustrating Michigan grapes were given to truckers to leave at retail stores where local grapes were left. More than 3,500 were distributed in this manner.

welcome Newfoundland as a 10th province only if the Islanders indicated "clearly and beyond all possibility of misunderstanding" that that was their choice.

In a June 3 referendum, voters were asked to choose among self-rule, union with Canada or continuation of the present form of government by a British Crown commission. Neither self-rule nor union got the required 51 per cent majority. So a runoff was ordered with the third proposition dropped.

ECONOMIC union with the United States became one of the hottest issues in the campaign. It was injected by a new party organized by Chesley A. Crosbie, St. John's businessman, who campaigned for self-rule.

Newfoundland, a bleak island of 320,000 inhabitants which fits like a stopper at the mouth of the St. Lawrence river, once enjoyed independent dominion status like Canada. In 1934 it found itself unable to sustain its national debt of about $100,000,000. To make ends meet financially it reverted to colonial status.

A governor was appointed by the British Crown and a commission sat as a sort of bankruptcy administration to settle the debt. War, and the establishment of American military bases, helped restore the island's prosperity.

Britain agreed to a vote on changing the island's status. Crosbie charged that the proposition of economic union with the United States was deliberately left off the ballot in the first referendum.

He contended this is Newfoundland's only hope of permanent prosperity as it would open American markets to the island's products and bring millions of dollars in capital here.

sented the insinuations in an editorial (in the Detroit Free Press) which demanded that " * * * I withdraw my candidacy or resign my position on the bench * * * "

He said that on three prior occasions judges of Detroit courts have been candidates for elected office without resigning.

The judge said, however, that before he decided to withdraw, "I fully intended in due time to resign my position on the bench."

Judge Skillman charged that the editorial was part of a campaign to pressure him into withdrawing.

"Emissaries from Lansing have on at least two occasions suggested that I get in touch with the governor," the statement said. "A long-time friend of mine was asked to use his influence with me in an effort to get me to withdraw and for a certain reward. I have turned thumbs down on all of these proposals."

Judge Skillman, who conducted the Detroit auto rackets grand jury, continued, "it is true that I have stepped on the toes of many wealthy and influential persons—persons who are now cracking the whips over the heads of everyone in state government who does not agree with them."

"The Michigan Auto Dealers association and the Detroit Auto Dealers association, whose lawyer is former Governor (Wilber M. Brucker, and whose front man is auto dealer Arthur Summerfield of Flint (G. Gov. Williams seized the occasion to renew demands on the senate to authorize cashing Veterans Trust Fund bonds to give the ailing state treasury an emergency shot in the arm of 40 million dollars or so.

Irving C. "Bud" Talbot Jr., 87, of St. Joseph passed away on Monday, Feb. 3, 2020.

A Celebration of Life Service will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 8, at Starks & Menchinger Chapel, 2650 Niles Road, St. Joseph, with Pastor Ronald Schmidt officiating. Friends may visit with the family from 9:30 a.m. until the time of the service. Bud was born on May 25, 1932, in Benton Harbor to Irving Sr. and Erma (Patzaoff) Talbot. He graduated from Benton Harbor High School in 1950 and continued his education at Ferris State University, where he earned a degree in pharmaceutical science. After graduation, Bud proudly enlisted in the United States Army where he worked as an engineer and pharmacist in Korea. Once he returned home, Bud married the love of his life, Sally Connelly, on Aug. 20, 1955, in Benton Harbor. In 1956, Bud and his brother, Roy, bought their father's old pharmacy and renamed it Talbot's Drug Store. In 1995 the drug store was sold to Rite-aid, but Bud continued to happily serve his community as a pharmacist for another 25 years until he retired at the age of 86. One of Bud's most notable achievements was becoming The Imperial Potentate for the Shriners, traveling every few days visiting all of the chapters in Michigan and getting to know all of the members on a personal level. Another passion of his was traveling the world; it would be hard to name a country he hadn't been to. Bud would oftentimes take his children and grandchildren with him on his worldly adventures. He was a proud member of Peace Lutheran Church, enjoyed golfing and going to Twin City Players to watch musicals with his family. Bud was an incredible, hard-working and loyal man who loved helping people. He will be missed dearly by all who knew him.

Bud is survived by his son, Irving "Tom" Talbot; grandchildren, Jason Luttrell, Jeremy (Amanda) Tollas, Erin Talbot and Ashley (Michael) McCammond; great-grandchildren, Madison, Austin, Jayden, Cameron, Tye, Kade, Adalyn and Annabelle; sister, Jane Brannock; and son-in-law, Rod McAlvey.

Bud was preceded in death by his loving wife of 50 years, Sally; parents, Irving Sr. and Erma; daughters, Lyn Tollas McAlvey and Martha Luttrell; granddaughter, Sarah Talbot; and brother, Roy Talbot.

OBITUARIES

Dorothy J. Hauch

Dorothy J. Hauch, 93, of Dowagiac, formerly of St. Joseph, passed away Thursday, April 16, 2015, at Lake-land Hospital St. Joseph.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her husband, J. Albert "Al" Hauch. Born June 12, 1921 to Paul & Anna (Barfeltz) Pagel, she was a lifelong resident of the Twin Cities before moving to Forest Glen Assisted Living in Dowagiac.

HAUCH

Dorothy was their fourth child and the surviving sibling of five children. She was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Lucile Radies and Marian Mach; and two brothers, Norman & Alvin Pagel. Her youngest sister, Mari-ai, passed away April 5, 2015.

Dorothy died the day after the 71st anniversary of her marriage. Dorothy met Al in 1942, during World War II, while working at Nineteen Hundred, the pre-runner to Whirlpool Corp. One of Al's favorite stories was that before he asked her out on a date, and after watching her from afar for three months at work, he told a co-worker it was Dorothy he was going to marry someday. They were married on April 15, 1944, at Zion Evangelical Church, where they were both members for much of their life.

Dorothy and Al were the proud parents of David (Mary) Hauch of Afton, Minn., and Vickie Phillipson (Ken Belew) of Dowagiac; two granddaughters, Laura (Jon) Nelson of Woodbury, Minn., and Karen Hauch (Jason Schlei) of Rothschild, Wis.; and two great-granddaughters, Lily and Hannah Nelson.

When Al was diagnosed with tuberculosis and hospitalized for the first seven years of their marriage, Dorothy moved back home with her parents and worked full time while raising David, their first born. In later years, when Vickie was born, Dorothy enjoyed what she called her early retirement, becoming a full-time homemaker.

Dorothy and Al were avid backyard gardeners, Al in the vegetable garden and Dorothy in her flower beds. She canned and froze much of what they grew. Her favorite flowers were pink peonies and roses. She often was able to grow a new rose bush from a single cutting.

Dorothy enjoyed years of sewing, knitting and crocheting. She also was known for her home baked apple pies, cheesecake and holiday hams.

Together, Al and Dorothy enjoyed traveling and for many years they owned a travel trailer and later a motorhome. She was an avid collector of more than 100 novelty salt and pepper shakers, many of which represented vacations they had taken. Throughout later years, she continued to enjoy walking and was active until her death.

Memorials may be made to the activity fund at Forest Glen Assisted Living where Dorothy made her home since 2008. The family expresses their heartfelt appreciation to Tammy Haner, director of Forest Glen, and her entire staff, who cared for her in later years.

A Celebration of Life service will be held Wednesday, April 22, at 11 a.m. at Starks & Menchinger Chapel, 2650 Niles Road, St. Joseph. Friends and family may visit from 10-11 a.m. at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Riverview Cemetery, St. Joseph. Miss Me -- But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little -- but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me -- but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me -- but let me go.
